

SPRING 2027
DEALER WORKBOOK

The Official Camo of The Lone Star State™

Dear Friends and Fellow Outdoorsmen,

Nearly 25 years ago, I wanted to start an outdoor apparel company built around the look and feel of the Southwest, one that stood for family values and provided great service.

I knew that we had to be different enough that people would appreciate what we had to offer. The original GameGuard pattern that I drew was the beginning of something very special. In South and West Texas, where I hunted, the country wasn't dark hardwoods; it was mesquite, prickly pear, cedar, and live oaks. That hand-drawn pattern and the people who gave us a shot put us on the map.

Today, we have three patterns and a catalog full of great products to fit any outdoor activity. Whether you're hunting, fishing, ranching, or just hanging out with the family, we have something for you.

We know that today you have a choice in who you spend your money with and where you buy your outdoor apparel. We are thankful to all those who have supported us over the past 25 years, and we ask those who haven't yet to give us a try. As we continue to grow and expand across the country, we haven't forgotten our roots or our commitment to exceptional quality and service and supporting community efforts with shared values.

Thank you for being part of the GameGuard story. We appreciate your loyalty and support, and we're glad you're along for the ride.

-Craig Smith

Founder & CEO, GameGuard
